Multilingual Medical Support Now Available!

A new OHDr. Medical Support Station has opened on the first floor of the passenger terminal, offering online health and medical consultations. Travelers can speak remotely with doctors in Japanese, English, or Chinese, and receive guidance on paid online consultations if needed.

The station is operated by Tokyo-based Joes Corporation, which runs the multilingual online health service OHDr. If you suddenly feel unwell or are not sure whether you need to see a doctor, stop by for assistance.

Location: Passenger Terminal Building, 1F (First Aid Room)
Consultation Hours: 11:00-17:00 (open daily)

*Health consultations do not include diagnosis or prescriptions.
*As consultations are conducted via computer, the station is unstaffed.

Enjoy Aso Kumamon Airport

Sorayoka is the public relations magazine of Aso Kumamoto Airport in Mashiki, Kumamoto Prefecture. The moniker is a coined term that combines "sora," meaning sky, and "yoka," which means good in the Kumamoto dialect; the phrase also means "that's good!"
